Y-Night Policies

When you arrive you must sign in. Your first time at a Y-Night you must bring this card filled out completely and signed by your parent/guardian. In order to leave before 9:30 p.m. you must have your parents permission. Once you leave you cannot return for any reason.

You must show respect for each other and chaperones (no rude remarks, swears, put downs or aggressive behavior). You must have respect for the Y property and equipment.

The Y is not responsible for any personal belongings.

Dancing styles are up to the discretion of the Y-Night staff.

Any violation of the rules will result in parents being called and loss of Y privileges.

The success of these nights depends on enough students showing up each time and the participants following these rules.

Please help to make these nights a success!
